

The Westin Aruba Resort tapped to host prestigious meeting

Wednesday, 13 August 2008

PALM BEACH - The Georgia Chapter of Meeting Professionals International (MPI) has selected the island of Aruba as the destination for its annual Summer Educational Alliance (SEA) this summer.

The Westin Aruba Resort was chosen from among the many fine resorts on the island as the host venue for the conference that will take place this September 4th, 5th, and 6th.

More than 200 attendees are planning to attend the event that draws from some of the top meeting planners in the field who represent a phenomenal economic impact to the meetings industry.

The SEA conference offers members continuing education, networking events, and site familiarization opportunities for consideration of future events for their clients.

The group had such a great experience with the Westin brand, as their 2006 conference was held at Westin Our Lucaya, Grand Bahamas Island with immense success, that an astounding number of future business was booked at the resort as a direct result of hosting the conference.

Confidence in another signature Westin experience for conference members resulted in The Westin Aruba Resort begin selected as the host resort for this year's conference.

Contemporary, sophisticated and innovative, Westin Hotels and Resorts define modern luxury. The Westin brand is relatively new to the island of Aruba, and this conference is a great opportunity to share all the exciting renovations and changes that have been made to the property since it was flagged under the Westin name in December 2006.
